Independence Day

"The preservation of the sacred fire of liberty and the destiny of the republican model of government are justly considered, perhaps, as deeply, as finally staked on the experiment entrusted to the hands of the American people." George Washington, First Inaugural Address, April 30, 1789

No means NO Fireworks in Willow Park.

Summary: Fireworks are illegal to possess, use, and sell inside the city limits of Willow Park. If you set off fireworks inside the city, you could be cited and fined, and, if any damage occurs, you could be charged with arson. Instead, attend the Hudson Oaks or Weatherford professional fireworks displays.

Willow Park Enterprise Salaries, June 2025

Summary: Thanks to Mayor Palmer's transparent executive management of Willow Park, we now have a list of the salaries and benefits of employees of the three Enterprise Accounts - Water, Wastewater, and Drainage. City Administrator Bryan Grimes did a great job of discussing these salary numbers and how they fit into the three Enterprise Accounts.

Williams Weekly: One Big Beautiful Bill Act

Newsletter from Roger Williams, the US House Rep. for Texas District 25, which includes Willow Park. "House Republicans have hit the ground running to deliver on the people's November mandate and get our nation back on track. We swiftly crafted and passed the One Big Beautiful Bill Act to cut taxes, lower costs for Main Street, create jobs, and benefit all Americans."

Mayor Calls All for tonight's Budget Planning. Come ask questions, get involved. City Hall 24 June, 2025, 6P.

Summary: Mayor Palmer promised every Willow Park Citizen a seat at the table. Now is the time to fill that seat and ask questions of the current administration about Budget Planning for the three Enterprise Accounts: Water, Wastewater and Drainage. "I look forward to seeing you there." Mayor Teresa Palmer.
